Action Film International is an international film production and distribution company with offices located in Cairo, Egypt, and the United States. Yousef Mansour president and CEO of Action Film International currently works out of his offices in Cairo. Services provided by Action Film include: Casting, equipment, permits, and export documentation, site selection, accounting, technical teams, transportation, personal bodyguards, communication equipment, media coverage and promotion, printing, set design, along with shipping and handling.

Action Film has produced ten major films since 1992 and currently has four films in the production stage and a huge major T.V. series entitled Triple I.

As a young boy growing up in Egypt, Mr. Mansour constantly worked-out and trained to become a master in martial arts. This has helped lay the format for his movies. Below is some general information on many of the major productions that have taken place.

Yousef Mansour

It was his involvement in Chi-Gong under Chinese masters that led to his motion picture debut in 1989, appearing in the first Egyptian or Arabic film to exhibit the martial arts. Since then he has starred in ten action films, as well as "Sweet Market", a play that ran for a year in Cairo . In 1993, he established Action Film, a production company that has produced the motion pictures he has appeared in since. He has also directed three of his feature films, "Desert Cat", "Mechanika" and "Badr - Come in Peace" Although Mr. Mansour's films are rich with martial arts and action his productions are focused on a message relating to family values, justice and peace that he considers an important element of Middle Eastern culture. Additional films are being planned with themes dedicated to building mutual understanding and respect among the peoples of the world. It was his own exposure as a celebrity and association with other high-profile individuals that led Mr. Mansour to establish ESSA in 1992. The security firm has been dedicated to the protection high-profile personnel as well as major hotels. In 1996, Mr. Mansour sold his interests in ESSA, relocating temporarily to Chandler, Arizona where he has been actively working on the formation of VEDEX International INS, the new company will offer a comprehensive set of services and capabilities as global security provider. The Phoenix, Ariz. Area has been selected for the first VEDEX command center. In addition to serving clients, VEDEX will play a role in helping governments monitor, locate and reduce terrorism, both domestic and international.

NO VIOLENCE (1993)

Action Film (Lead Role): Stealing from the dead. A man takes advantage of a recent death in the family and convinces the family to sell all their belongings before a war. Other relatives begin to split the deceased's wealth. A boy's father's wealth was taken by that man years ago and now he wants his share back and justice for the killing of his father. To do this, he becomes his chauffeur.

SUITABLE MAN (1994)

Action/Comedy Film (Lead Role & Producer): Does a man steal because he is poor, or is it his nature? Is a rich man successful because he has money and is always good? And what happens when the person who is used to stealing is given the opportunity to be wealthy? Will he stop stealing? Will he be successful? And what happens when the rich man loses everything? Will he steal? Will he become a loser? Two brothers made a point to answer these questions.

DESERT CAT (1995)

Action Film (Story, Script, Directed, Produced and Lead Role):

Due to increasing terrorist attacks and sabotage worldwide, the U.N. Assembly decides to form a "World Peace Organization." Such an organization's main purpose is to stop terrorists before they attack and before governments can go to war, through its elite agents, selected from all member countries. After screening all agents, the decision was reached to select the Desert Cat to head that department in the U.N. Similar to James Bond defending the interest of England. But Desert Cat defends the interest of the world. This is a series to be continued with different missions in Gaza, Israel, India, China, London, and any troubled area.

MECHANIKA (1996)

Family Drama (Lead Role): A yacht mechanic finds himself protecting an arrogant, rich woman, who has amnesia, from her greedy husband who is after her wealth. He takes the woman back to his house to live with his three wild kids and the woman learns child care, love, caring, things she never experienced due to her extreme richness and power. During the period she lived with a family of four, she learned the value of life, value of relations and when she got her memory back, she chose to be with the family she found.

BADR - Come in Peace 2000

Political Effect (Written by Yousef Mansour, Directed by Action Film): After the Peace Treaty between Egypt and Israel, a famous singer visits Egypt. What years of hatred and war has done, love has erased in days. How enemies can see each other's culture and people through a song.

2006 International Investigation Incorporated "Triple I" (International TV Series)

Theme by: Yousef Mansour, Written by: 6 US script writers.

Produced by: Action Film International, Directed by: 4 Hollywood Directors,
Executive Producer: Mr. Sylvester Stallone

"A new standard for global broadcast entertainment Action Film International forges a new awareness as we bring together talent from the Middle East and the West to showcase the positive cultural aspects of both of these parts of the world in a compelling new action adventure television series entitled "TRIPLE I - International Investigators Incorporated".

TRIPLE I is a thrilling television series offered in 52 one-hour episodes shot on locations throughout the Middle East and the United States.

TRIPLE I is innovative television utilizing the vivid wide-screen 24p Hi Definition format. Only Hi Definition can convey the dramatic landscapes of the Middle East and the grandeur of its enduring cultures. While Hi Definition filming is done in the US for some of the top movies, this high level of filming has never been done in the Middle East and will be a first for the region.

TRIPLE I is smart television that also spotlights impressive contemporary settings, the natural and cultural beauty of the Middle East including sites located in Egypt, Libya, Lebanon, Morocco, Dubai, and Jordan, other Arab countries to preserve after shooting. Such programming will create a more positive image of the region. This can serve to change negative stereotypes long held by the west and other parts of the world. Action Film believes this will also enhance tourism throughout the Middle East.

2006 Thunder in The Desert (Feature Film) - Pre Production

Produced by Action Film International

Screenplay by David Franzoni

Directed by Oliver Stone

The story will detail the events that created the conditions in Libya that led to the uprising of its native people. In the film, Thunder in the Desert, we expose the roots of the Leader's thirst for freedom from foreign tyranny, a thirst born out the struggles of his father and their fathers in the early days of the 20th Century.

2007 Bedwan Leader (Feature Film) - Pre Production

Produced by Action Film International

Screenplay by William Broyles

Directed by Ridley Scott

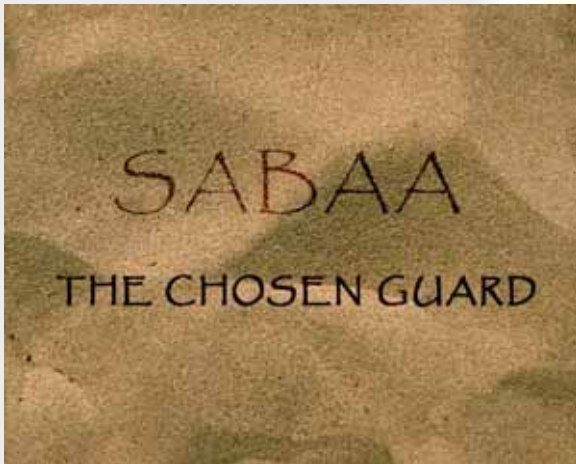

Bedwan Leader is an impassioned epic that reveals the struggles of Mo'ammr Gadhafi, the larger-than-life leader who inspired a nation. The film will follow this dramatic figure from his austere beginnings in the tribal tents of North Africa to his heroic revolt freeing his country from the bonds of oppression. Bedwan Leader will be shot on location, set against the stunning vistas of Libya's silent deserts and its modern cityscapes.
